DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Amendment received on 05/21/2008 is acknowledged and entered. Claims 1-12 have been canceled. New claims 13-34 have been added. Claims 13-34 are currently pending in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 13-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Foresman et al. (US 5,099,422).

Foresman et al. teaches a method and system for distributing a customized video commercial, said method comprising:

Claims 13-34:

- (i) receiving from an advertiser a request to create a customized video commercial, said request comprising (a) a target audience to whom said customized video commercial is to be distributed and (b) a sample video commercial comprising a plurality of sample video segments and a plurality of sample audio segments, wherein said sample video commercial has an advertising message (C. 7, L. 15-28);
- (ii) generating a video commercial template in response to receiving said request, said video commercial template comprising (a) a plurality of tillable video segment slots, each tillable video segment slot arranged at a specific time point within said video commercial template and (b) a plurality of tillable audio segment slots, each tillable audio segment slot arranged at a specific time point within said video commercial template (generated sequence indicates the template);

- (iii) storing in a resource library (a) a plurality of video segments, each video segment forming a portion of a complete video commercial and (b) a plurality of audio segments, each audio segment forming a portion of a complete video commercial (C. 4, L. 25-37);
- (iv) defining one or more rules for filling said plurality of tillable video segment slots with said video segments and for filling said plurality of tillable audio segment slots with said audio segments based on characteristics regarding said target audience (C. 6, L. 25-27; C. 7, L. 42-45);
- (v) acquiring characteristics regarding said target audience from one or more sources (C. 6, L. 35-54);
- (vi) filling said tillable video segment slots with said video segments and said tillable audio segment slots with said audio segments based on said defined rules and said acquired characteristics to create said customized video commercial (C. 6, L. 20-33; C. 5, L. 3-14);
- (vii) distributing said customized video commercial to said target audience, wherein said customized video commercial has at least one video segment or audio segment that is different from said sample video segment or sample audio segment, and wherein said customized video commercial has at least one video segment or audio segment that is same as at least one of said sample video segment or sample audio segment (C. 8, Table B, Segment Presentation/Sequencing, Same Sequence for All).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to new claims 13-34 have been considered but are most in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Art Unit: 3628

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
